

Cartoon Mash-Ups

Aaron Craig is from Sunshine Coast, Australia. His whole work is based around doing mashups of characters from different cartoon universes. He calls it "Pop Mash". Being a huge Masters Of The Universe fan as a kid himself, the artist borrows from Marvel and DC comics, the Simpsons, the Hanna Barbera universe, Warner Bros, and much more.

Can you identify each character in his work?

Now try and create your own cartoon mash up and we will see if the rest of the year group can guess who your character is created from.
